Dedication

This publication being a part of the climax of twelve years of work and play, failures and triumphs, joys and sorrows, the Seniors of 1953 wish to show their appreciation to those who have helped us to reach this climax with the hope of a better understanding of the rules of the games of life. We think it fitting to pay a special tribute to three teachers who helped us on our way many times when we stumbled during our last two years in high school. Thus we dedicate this annual to: Mrs. Elizabeth B. Simpson who led us gently through our Junior year; Mrs. Doris Vernelson who sponsored our Senior activities with kindness and wisdom; and Miss Louisianna Queen Hurdle whose patience and advice made this annual possible.

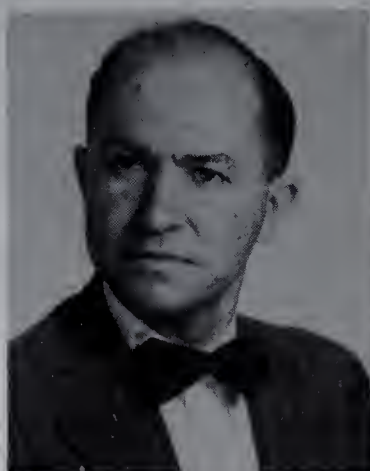

The image shows a piece of paper with a grid of Cyrillic characters. The grid is organized into rows and columns. The characters are arranged in a way that suggests a cipher or a code. The person's hands are visible at the bottom, holding the paper steady. The background is dark, and the lighting is focused on the paper and the hands.

Last Will And Testament

We the class of 1952-53, of Nahunta High School, being of good will and sad hearts, do ordain and make this our Last Will and Testament.

To the ones left behind, we bequeath our ability to work together as classmates.

To everyone in the Freshman Class we bequeath our dignity.

The whole Senior Class leaves their ability to wiggle out of trouble to the Seniors next year because they sure will need it.

Linwood Howell leaves his quiet ways to Jonathan Hooks.

John Edgerton leaves his loudness, height, and cute remarks to Lemuel Overman.

Velma Rose Barnes leaves her ability to make friends with everyone to Barbara Davis.

Harold Richardson leaves his friendliness and flirty ways to Joseph Rollins.

Jo Ann Jones leaves her quiet ways and ability to tend to everything to Peggy Crawford so the Seniors next year will have a boss.

Hilda Gurley leaves her flirty ways to Peggy Lewis since she doesn't already have any.

Junior Daughtry leaves his "Junior" girl friend to Bayron Hare.

Otis Hinnant leaves his ability to play basketball to Lewis Valentine so the team will have a star next year.

Elizabeth Pike bequeaths her friendliness to Carol Aycock.

Hazel Nichols bequeaths her nice disposition and her Junior boy friend to any girl in the Sophomore Class.

R. A. Sasser leaves his ability to make friends with the best looking girl in the room to John Pate, so John will stop being so bashful.

Marjorie Sasser, Peggy Gurley and Elizabeth Pike leave their cheerleading ability to the cheerleaders next year.

Peggy Gurley leaves her ability to make friends with all the new boys in school to Jenette Sasser.

Mildred J. Ferrell leaves her determination to finish school before getting married to Evelyn Radford, Peggy Crawford and Eva Mae Bizzell.

Raymond Peedin leaves his quiet ways and politeness to Billy Holland.

Marjorie Sasser leaves her '52 Ford to the lucky girl who is able to hold it providing she can have it back at the proper time.

Emmette Collier leaves his cute remarks to Jimmy Morris hoping he will begin to talk a little.

David Harper leaves his FFA record to Jonathan Hooks so the FFA next year will have a good start.

Joyce Strickland leaves all her Johns except one to Marie Winders.

Crawford Sasser leaves his good looks and quiet disposition to Cooper Hall.

In this manner, we hope that those left at dear Nahunta High may take this to their best advantage. Signed and published, we so do declare the above to be our Last Will and Testament. Whereof we have set our hearts and hands and seal this twenty-sixth day of May, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty three. Witnessed by the only and sole executor.

W. P. Hollowell, Principal

Class Prophecy

"As I look into the future lives of the Senior Class of 1953, I see Mildred Ferrell and Donald Ray have gotten married and are living in their little dream house of which Mildred has often spoken.

Let me see now, I believe I see Peggy Gurley going to college at Greenville. Oh yes! Up there where she can be near Obie, her boy friend, about whom she was often worried because he would not write her enough.

Since Raymond liked chemistry so well, I see that he has finally finished college and is a great chemistry teacher.

Be careful there Hazel with that needle! Hazel has finished her training at Carolina Hospital in Wilson, and is now a great nurse. She is carrying on her fine work while she is still waiting for Linwood Earl to return from the Air Force.

Click! Click! Click! Jo Ann Jones is typing away. She has finished her studying at W.C. and is now a secretary for a private business firm. Jo Ann is still as quiet as she was in her high school days.

Well, I see R. A. is still at home working. He is plowing a fifty-acre field. Yes, R. A. is a very prosperous farmer.

Woop! Junior, don't be too rough with those boys. They could not help losing the game. All of Junior's boys think he is a good basketball coach until they lose a game. All can't win.

I see Hilda Gurley is clerking in McLellans. She is still flirting with all the good looking boys, as she did back at dear old Nahunta High.

I see that Elizabeth Pike has finished her beauty course and is now working in her own little beauty shop. Elizabeth still has her friendly disposition that she had in high school.

Since David Harper was such a good FFA worker during high school, I see that he is still following the modern method of farming and of hog raising.

I see Joyce Strickland in her modern all-electric kitchen cooking supper, while John Flowers, her husband, holds the baby and waits impatiently.

I see Linwood Howell walking into a jewelry store. Gee! What's that he is buying? It's a diamond ring for his future wife. Linwood has finally grown out of his bashfulness.

Who is that coming down the road in a '52 Ford? It's Marjorie Sasser. She finally got her faithful Walter to come back to her.

Harold Richardson is staying at home right on. Harold is waiting for Carol to finish school, with the hopes that Carol will marry him as soon as she graduates.

I see Emmette and his loving wife, Gaynell, going down the street in Washington. Yes, Emmette is leading two small children.

In a studio, a great radio announcer, John Edgerton, tells all the listeners about the latest tunes. He is now dedicating a song to his wife, Ernestine, and John, Jr., while she is keeping house. The title of the song is 'So Used To Loving You'.

Well, I see Otis has become a great farmer. Otis entertains himself by singing 'Salty Dog Blues' as he did the Senior Class when we went to Washington.

Crawford Sasser has finally decided to be a bachelor. The girls still like to flirt with him, but he thinks he is better off single.

As we, the Seniors of 1953, look into the future, we see a happy young couple going down to the License Bureau. Who could it be? Oh, it's Velma Rose and she is pulling Brooks by the arm. Brooks is fresh out of the army, and Velma Rose has waited patiently for her beloved."

Class History

"The class of 1953 began its career at Nahunta in 1941. The class was divided from the First through the Fifth Grades, but we were all together in the Sixth Grade. That year, we went to Raleigh, and our teacher was married during the year. We lost six of our classmates in the Seventh Grade. We all enjoyed the Eighth Grade and everyone graduated. We came happily back in 1949 to our first year of High School.

Mr. A.C. Holloman was our teacher, and we gained three pupils in that year and lost two. Although we were called 'Green Freshmen', we got along fine with everyone.

After a summer of hard work, we came back as 'Sophomores' to more hard work. Mr. W.P. Hollowell was our teacher. That year, we lost seven pupils and our principal.

Starting our Junior year, we had a new principal, Mr. Hollowell, and our Eleventh Grade teacher, Mrs. E.B. Simpson, was also doing her part. She had the terrible sorrow of losing her husband in the middle of the year, and we can't put into words how sorry we are about this, and we do appreciate everything she did for us. She helped us physically and mentally. We all got along very nicely as a class and teacher. We lost two classmates in our Junior year and gained one. Our Junior play, 'It's Great To Be Crazy', was given November 8, 1951. We gave the Seniors a banquet on March 28, 1952, at Hotel Goldsboro. The five marshalls were: John Allen Edgerton, Chief; David Harper, Peggy Gurley, Marjorie Sasser, Hilda Gurley. We learned to like the Seniors and hated to see them leave us, but we know they were ready to go after twelve years.

Beginning our Senior year, we had twenty-one students. We lost two and now we have nineteen. After getting settled down we started to work on our Senior play, 'Here Comes Charlie', which was given on November 14, 1952. Everyone enjoyed it, and this made us feel good. After our play, came our Washington trip. We left November 23, 1952, and returned November 26. Mrs. Cooper Gurley, Mrs. Vernelson and Mrs. Homer Richardson were our chaperones. We stayed the first night at Natural Bridge and two nights in Washington. Mrs. Vernelson was our homeroom teacher. We all had fun working on our annual, and we are very proud of it even though we had to work hard to complete it so you could have it back by the end of school. Miss Hurdle was our sponsor, and we truly appreciate everything she did for us.

Our twelve years of school have been hard and even though we felt like quitting at times, we are glad we did not. You people take our advice, 'It may be hard, but it is well worth your time to finish school'. We know we will miss all of you, but we will look back through our annual and remember our school days with you while here at Nahunta High School."

Peggy Gurley
Historian

Class Song

Our hearts are light, our voices gay
For we are setting sail today
To parts unknown, to lands unseen,
Fulfillment of our every dream.
But ere we say our warm good-byes to you,
Our secret thoughts we will impart to you.
Oh, how we love you, dear Nahunta High!
Thoughts of you will be with us
Until we die.

Sailing, Sailing over the bounding Main,
For many a stormy wind may blow
Ere we come home again.
Sailing, Sailing under the skies so blue,
For many a stormy wind may blow
Ere we come back to you.

We've had our fun, we've had our tears.
We have been with you twelve short years.
But ere we leave to go away
Just one more thing we wish to say.
Good-by to friends, to parents, teachers dear.
You've done so much for us
Since we've been here.
Oh, how we love you, dear Nahunta High!
Thoughts of you will be with us until we die.

Class Poem

In '41 we started to build
A stately ship--the winds could not wield.
We gathered materials from near and from far.
We made ready our plans to tread after a star,
A star that would lead us up toward the right,
Hoping temptation we would fight.

We first built the hull of number one steel,
Then the stern of strong mind and strong will.
Up went the mask where love's banner will fly
Representing goodness past the day that we die.

Faith as our captain to pilot us on;
Work as first mate clean through the gray dawn.
Will our voyage be successful?
Have we learned payment in full?
Will we Nahunta's great name magnify,
As we make ready ourselves with a sigh?
Let us keep our anchor ever ready
Lest we steer too close to a terrible eddy.
Whether we sail through the wind or sail through the rain,
God bless us all 'til we meet again.

Baseball 1953

Nahunta is expected to have another championship year as they have had for two of the last three years. Nahunta will have eight outstanding players returning for the 1953 season. The coach, Mr. Spirtos, who accomplished great things with the team last year is back this year.

Missing from the last year group will be such standouts as: Gene Edgerton, Ray Hawley, Donald Morris, Harold Richardson, Linwood Brown, Jimmy Bass and Junior Daughtry. These boys played a big part in winning the Northern Division and then splitting the Wayne County Baseball Championship with Brogden High School which won the Southern Division.
